To Hold Delayed All-College Party In Gym Friday

Frats and Sororities Will Sponsor Games, Side Shows

The Women's League Carnival, that proposed riot of fun and amusement, has been postponed again. At a meeting of the Women's Activities League Board, which was held last Wednesday afternoon, the date for the affair was changed from Thursday, Feb. 24, to next Friday, March 4. The reason given for the change was the inability of some of the men's organizations to make arrangements in time for the original date.

Although the Carnival is being put off for a few days, Marjorie Moody, chairman of the affair, and her committee promise that it will be even more to the liking of Hope's pleasure-seekers. Skits, booths, and games sponsored by each fraternity and sorority on the campus, plus free acts and shows, and tasty refreshments are to remain features of the carnival. Booths will present tumbling acts, fortune tellers, freaks and horrors, including all the attractions of the traditional Midway.

Carnegie gymnasium, as previously announced, will be the scene of the festivities which are scheduled to begin around 7:30 p. m. The carnival committee wishes to stress the fact that dates are not required in order to attend.

Great interest in the Carnival has been exhibited so far by the general student body, and publicity plans, under the direction of Jean Hoekje, chairman of publicity, have shown several new twists. Last Wednesday, three lovely artists drew sketches advertising the Carnival on outdoor easels between classes, other surprise publicity is promised.

The Women's League carnival is the first all-college affair to be held since the Freshman Mixer last fall. The committee, including Mayo Hadden, Marge Moody, Millie Mulder, and Mary Ruth Jacobs, hopes that as much co-operation will be shown in this function by the school as in all previous ones.

CONTESTS ANNOUNCED

Several national contest announcements have been posted on the board in the library. They are open to all undergraduates and those who wish a facile pen take notice. The Atlantic offers $50.00 for the best poem, essay, or short story; Quill offers $50.00 for the best poem; the Milestone is also sponsoring a contest for the best poem, essay, or short story—the prize here is only the fame, we understand; and the Columbia Broadcasting System offers $10.00 a day for the best poem sent to Ted Malone of that company. The poem will also be read over the radio.

ALUMNI VISIT CAMPUS

William Welmers, '36, and Henry Vermeer, '37, who are at present attending the Westminster Seminary, visited the campus two weeks ago. They were present at the convention of the League for Evangelical Students which was held in Grand Rapids.

Drama Class to Present Play at Pi Kappa Delta

A new type of program has been arranged for the Pi-Kappa-Delta meeting Wednesday. The dramatics class is to present the play, A Flutter in King Poo, written by Weymer Mills.

The eight characters in the play will be portrayed by Stella De Jonge, Alma Nyland, Loraine Pomp, Jean Hoekje, Eunice Maatman, Kay Boon, Florence Meengs, and Earl Faber, all members of the dramatics class.

The meeting will be held in the Alethean room.

Faculty Members Hear Council's Cheating Protest

Copies of a message condemning cheating, drafted by the student council as a result of a barrage of protests after final examinations last semester, were delivered Thursday to several members of the faculty, including Pres. Wynand Wichers.

Excerpts from the message follow: "There has been much discussion of late in regard to the amount of cheating and cribbing prevalent upon Hope's campus... it is poor publicity; if it spreads... it will mean that an A.B. degree is given by this institution unduly, unjustly, and to students who are undeserving of such a degree."

"Someone has offered the plan of tapping a pencil when evidence of cheating is prevalent. Another suggests that we put into practice a rigid Honor System, in which the student is bound, by a signature affixed to an honor pledge, neither to give nor accept aid... Regardless of the practicability of the plans, all of them suggest fair play in examinations."

"This cannot be done unless there is 100% cooperation by the faculty. Our appeal is to the members of the faculty for a more strict supervision of examinations in order that fairness be promoted, and due credit be given to every member of the student body."

Spelling Bee Held by English Majors Club

The English Majors Club of Hope college met for their monthly meeting at the home of Laura Mae Van Kley's in Zeeland last Thursday evening. Betty Nieuwsma, president, presided. It was decided by the group to ask eligible juniors to the next meeting. This will be a play under the direction of Freeman Vander Ploeg.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was an old-fashioned spell-down with Dr. Warner wielding the spelling book. You little freshmen will be surprised to learn that four bright seniors went down on "carburetor," and that three persons failed to spell "chauffeur" correctly.

Three to Take Charge Of Classics Wednesday

The Classical club opened its meeting with the singing of "America," and a round in Latin Feb. 16. The program was in charge of Dorothy Lincoln and Peter Veltman. Mr. Veltman read a literary (plus humor) paper on "Washington, a Product of Greece and Rome," and Betty Denison gave a paper written by Miss Lincoln, on "Lincoln, of Greek and Roman Origin." Alma Weeldreyer and Alberta Kooiker rendered two piano duets.

The meeting to be held Wednesday, will be under the chairmanship of Laura Van Kley, Geraldine Van Eenwyk, and John Wybenga.

Two new members taken into the society were Alberta Kooiker and Ruth Ven Popering.

Pan-Hell Plans Revision Of Girls Rushing Rules

At the Pan-Hellenic meeting Wednesday, February 16, President Betty Nieuwsma appointed a committee to draw up a questionnaire for girls who have been in societies prior to this semester, and another for girls who pledged this semester. Suggestions on the questionnaire will be used in revising the rushing rules.

Class 'A' Teams Tie For Fourth At Indiana Meet

Debaters Vie With 50 Schools At Tourney Over Week End

Competing with 50 universities and colleges from eight mid-western states in the Manchester-Huntington Invitational Debate Tournament held Friday and Saturday in Indiana, Hope college's Class "A" squads came through to tie for fourth place with three other schools: Lake Forest, Akron and Goshen.

The tournament, co-sponsored by Manchester and Huntington colleges, offered each competing class "A" teams six debates: three Friday afternoon and night and three more Saturday. Class "B" teams from various colleges held five inter-collegiate debates during the tournament.

The Hope college class "A" affirmative team, Wilbur Jacobs and Don Van Liere, conquered Manchester, Loyola, University of Chicago, and Anderson. This team dropped only two: to Heidelberg, 1936 Ohio champions, and to a strong Lake Forest, Illinois, team.

Hope's class "A" negative team, Bob Bonhuis, and Wendell Miles, defeated Wheaton, Marion, Hiram, last year's sectional champion, and Rose Polytechnic. They were defeated only by the winners of the tourney, Olivet of Illinois, and Indiana Law school.

By winning eight of their twelve contests, these teams won for Hope fourth place in the tournament.

In the class "B" debates, Hope's affirmative team, Chester Wing and Henri Vande Brake, won two debates, and lost three. Jack Leenhouts and Lester Wassenaar, negative team, won two and lost three. These teams defeated Northwestern, University of Chicago, Loyola, and Ohio "B" teams.

'Girls Same Everywhere' Say Gil And Louie, Hopeites From Iraq

From Iraq, country of agriculture and commerce, two young men have come to Hope College, hoping, by acquiring a liberal education, to return to Iraq better equipped to carry on its advancement. These freshmen, known to Van Vleck inmates as Gil and Louis, are Jalbert Hasso and Louis Tooni.

Iraq, we learn, is located directly east of Palestine at the end of the Mediterranean Sea, due north of Arabia's vast expanse. It is a country about the size of Texas, a fair example of the present progressive Near East, and is the key of the Europe-Indian trade routes. Perhaps the most famous of Iraq's cities is the mystical, romantic Bagdad which is today a modern metropolis buzzing with an ever-increasing trade with western Europe and the Far East.

When visited by the inquiring reporter the boys were found to be normal American students, using college slang, wearing the standardized universal after-exam nausea.

Having seated himself in the leather armchair, reputed to be Van Vleck's oldest and most comfortable, your reporter set about having an educational chat with the boys.

The differences between the United States and Iraq are surprisingly few. "Our government is run on a fairly democratic system," says Louie, "although we have a king, he doesn't count."

"Only a figurehead, then?" ventured your reporter.

"Yes," was the answer, "the Parliament, elected by popular vote runs the government. It's quite like the British system."

"The government owns the railroads, has a large air force and army, and is fostering both agriculture and commerce by constant improvement," added friend Gil.

"Are the cities any different? Perhaps you could compare an Iraqi city with Grand Rapids."

"Shall we take Bagdad? It is much larger than Grand Rapids. It has many factories, transportation lines, theaters, stores, churches, etc. Its residential sections are no

Frosh, Sophs Make Plans for Nykerk Contest in March

Plans for the annual J. B. Nykerk contest, which will occur on March 11 in the Carnegie gymnasium, are rapidly reaching completion under the direction of the freshman and sophomore chairmen, Jean Wishmeier and Lenore Vandermade, respectively.

Both the freshmen and sophomores will withhold all information concerning the play they have selected and the cast which will appear in it, until the date of presentation. Since this is the major part of the program, the element of suspense will be great.

Virginia Ellison will orate for the sophs, while Mary Bolema will serve as the freshmen's mainstay in oratory.

The music selections of the sophomores and freshmen will both be in the form of trios, composed of Teddy Meulendyke, Elynor Spaan, and Althea Raffenaud for the sophomores, and Mary Ruth Jacobs, Ruth Stryker and Marthene Van Dyke for the freshmen.

The sophomore committee under Lenore Vandermade includes Rose Teninga, Joyce White, Genevieve Nafe and Teddy Meulendyke.

Doris Van Lente, Margaret Bilkert, Phyllis Newcastle and Ruth Klaasen are working with Jean Wishmeier.

As is the custom, the judges will decide the victor by the merits of the three selections as given by each side. The present junior class won the cup during both their years of participation, so naturally the sophomores are eager to make use of their last chance for honors. The freshmen class also have the usual high spirits, ability, and ambition.

Through the courtesy of Blue Key, programs giving the team lineups and other details were distributed at the Kazoo-Hope game.

College Orators Travel to Alma For Meet Friday

Next Friday, March 4, Dean Dykstra and Gladys Van Lare will travel to Alma College to compete in the state oratorical contest.

Dean Dykstra will use the same oration that he presented last week when he won the Washington Bust contest. The oration is entitled, "The Declaration of Inter-Dependence." Gladys Van Lare will speak on "The Perfect Tribute."

Hope has for many years upheld a high standing in oratory and last year, it will be recalled, again came out on top, when Lucille Butler won first place in the state oratorical contest at Detroit. At that time the students celebrated her victory by declaring a "glory day," and enjoying a day of festivities.

Most students now in school remember the snake dance, the invasion of the sacred halls of Voorhees, and the parade through the high schools last year.

23 New Members Enter French Club, Including One Man

Last Monday night the French club met in the Delpi room for the purpose of initiating 23 new members. Each prospective member was escorted into the candle-light room by Mary Jane Vaupell. She led each one before the table bearing both an American and French flag.

The officers, dressed in robes, stood behind the table, and President Jack Leenhouts administered the oath, after which each joined the circle of new members. After this portion of the ceremony, vice-president Norma Claus briefly addressed the group on the influence of French literature. Acting secretary-treasurer Katharine Van Raalte acquainted the audience with the purpose of the French club. President Leenhouts then presented his charge to the new members with the wish that the French club might assimilate the cultures of both America and France.

After a short business meeting, Marjorie Van Westenburg read a paper on George Washington and the group was led in singing by Norma Claus.

The following were initiated into the French club: Nelva Zandbergen, Jean Mac Neil, Olive Van Eenwyk, Dorothy Schuutmaat, Wilma Rowerdink, Virginia Ver Straate, Florence Olert, Marjorie Van Westenburg, Roberta Rawson, Marthene Van Dyke, Gertrude Young, Eugenie Fenlon.

Seminary Gospel Team To Lead Joint Y Meet

Tomorrow night a Western seminary gospel team will conduct a joint meeting of the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. The team will include two former presidents of the college Y.M.C.A.

Joe Esther, senior at the seminary, will speak on the subject, "Worship Put to Work." John Piet, middler, who spent last year at Princeton, will conduct devotions. Russell Vande Bunte, a first year man from Central college, will play a trumpet solo.

BACCALAUREATE DATE SET

Thursday President Wynand Wichers announced that the Rev. Charles H. Campbell, pastor of Central Avenue Reformed church of Jersey City, N. J., will deliver the baccalaureate address this year. Sunday, June 12, has been set as the date for this service.

"Y" Association Union to Begin Campaign Today

Dr. L. Schafer to Speak Wednesday Morning in Chapel

Monday through Wednesday the "Y" Association Union is sponsoring a campaign on Hope's campus to raise $500 for the Basrah Boys' school. This morning in chapel the first campaign program featured Mrs. Abram De Young and Dorothy Lincoln. Tomorrow afternoon Dr. L. J. Schafer will arrive from New York. He will speak in chapel Wednesday morning.

The Basrah Boys' school, situated in Basrah, Arabia, is the most important institution of higher learning in that country, and is recognized as such by the government. Dr. John Van Ess, its principal, is one of Arabia's foremost leaders, not only in educational and religious circles, but also in political fields.

Mrs. De Young, who spoke to the student body in chapel this morning, is the mother of the late Ray De Young, who died while he was teaching in the Basrah school several years ago. Dorothy Lincoln introduced the campaign and

PREXY ENDORSES DRIVE

"I am glad to endorse this move and hope it will have the co-operation of every student and faculty member. It is an enterprise which, if successful, will again greatly enrich the life of the campus. Let us pray for its success, and let us give to it as we may be able. Here is an opportunity to give up a temporary enjoyment or convenience for the sake of a permanent satisfaction."

WYNAND WICHERS

explained its purpose before Mrs. De Young spoke. "Ring the Bells of Hope in Basrah" was the subject of Mrs. De Young's inspirational speech.

Coming from the Board of Foreign Missions, Dr. L. J. Schafer will speak to the student body as the campaign comes to a climax in chapel on Wednesday morning. At the close of the service, of which Herman Luben will be the chairman, the entire student body will be given the opportunity to pledge for the support of the Basrah Boys' school in Arabia.

Every two weeks these lectures will be given in Rev. Hinkamp's room at 4:00 p. m. The meetings, open to everyone, are given in English. Preceding them there will be a German song fest in the Y.W. room at which nothing but German songs will be sung. The schedule follows:

"Giving Isn't Giving Until It Hurts"

The Rev. John Van Ess, who founded the Bosrah Boys' School about twenty years ago, and who is its principal today, has done and is continuing to do a marvelous piece of work. The school, "located at the cross-roads of history" now has an enrollment of 330 boys, the majority of whom are Moslems.

The curriculum of the school is the same as that of the American high school. Although Arabic is the official instructive medium. English is taught as a language. Ten teachers are employed by the institution, the sole aim of which, according to Dr. Van Ess, is winning disciples for Christ.

As in all missionary enterprises there is lack of finances, and, more than that, serious lack of finances. At the Basrah Boys' school, which is housing 330 pupils at the present time in quarters sufficient for but half that number. As Dr. Van Ess states in a recent pamphlet, "You may forget all that. But can you forget this? Last winter at two o'clock on a cold rainy morning three little boys of seven were playing in the school swing. They had no other place to go. Will you help us to give them a chance?"

And if you contribute to the cause this week Wednesday, even of the "recessioned" little you may have, you are not helping only these little ones, but 'as ye have done unto the least of these, My brethren, so ye have done unto Me.'

We have two reasons for optimism in this issue—(1) Spring is here, because the tulips are beginning to sprout, and (2) The recession is over, because a boom is being noticed in the number of patrons of Dottie Lincoln's Date bureau.

Private Gain vs. Public Service

We have been asked through these columns to clarify a little matter which seems to be creating a bit of confusion on the campus. The confusion centers about the Blue Key store in Van Raalte hall. It appears that numerous students and even faculty members have been disillusioned into believing that the Blue Key store is a private enterprise, bringing shekels into the empty purses of those in charge.

This is not true. The store is a non-private enterprise, and is run on a service basis by the Blue Key chapter on the campus. The trophy case, among others, is an example of what the organization does with funds accumulating from the store. None of it, whatever, is used for private gain.

Reputation is what men and women think of us; character is what God and Angels know of us.—Paine.

A Matter of Terminology

There are two terms which are often loosely used in a synonymous manner. These two words are "religion" and "Christianity." And, while these words are not necessarily antonyms, they cannot be used as substitutes for each other. Christianity is a type or kind of religion, but all religion is far from being Christian.

We would not think of using the word "animal" if we were specifically referring to a "lion," a type of animal.

Perhaps our conceptions of Christianity would be much more clear if we did not confuse the two terms. For the central of Christianity, namely the vicarious atonement of Jesus Christ for the sins of the individual, is peculiar to Christianity alone, and cannot be found in mere religious ideas.

A boom is a short period in which to save up money to spend in a recession; a recession is a period in which to spend the money you have saved during the boom.

About Our Grand-Aunt

Some time ago, while browsing around, furthering our own interests, we approached one individual, who notified us, in the discussion which ensued, that we did not stand so high in his esteem, since he did not have acquaintance with our father and mother.

We do not know what this individual's philosophy of life is, but we have always felt that one couldn't judge an individual by what his parents were or are. What if our grandfather were a horse-thief and our great-great-grand aunt's sister-in-law was a good-for-nothing? While such things may perhaps be factors in environment and heredity which make up the individual, the individual is basically the thing—the individual should be judged on his own merit, or lack of it.

Music Notes

The next vespers recital Sunday, March 6, in the Memorial chapel will be presented by the Chapel Choir under Prof. Osborne. Students will take charge of the devotions and the Choir will be directed by senior members. They will sing O Praise Ye God by Tschai-kowsky, Cherubim Song by Glinka, and the popular Finlandia by Sibelius. The organ numbers included on the program are Handel's Largo, three Pastels by Karg-Elert, and the Prelude and Fugue on BACH by Liszt.

o o o o o
 Last Thursday evening Prof. Osborne played a recital on the new Skinner organ in Westminster Presbyterian church in Grand Rapids. Mr. Doersan, the warden of the American Guild of Organists dedicated this instrument only a few weeks ago.

o o o o o
 The Men's Glee club will give concerts in Michigan this year instead of making their yearly trip. On March 6 the men will sing in Allegan, on March 11 in Kalamazoo, at an alumni dinner, and on March 18 they will give a concert in Grand Rapids.

o o o o o
 Two recitals by students in the music department will be presented on March 16 and March 23 by Angeline Dornbos and Dorothy Vanden Bout. Both are juniors and are majoring in organ.

THE BEST PLAYS OF 1936-1937

Burns Mantle

A book we have been reading and enjoying immensely is Burns Mantle's latest volume of The Best Plays. If you are interested in the theatre at all, this is your meat. It contains the usual running summaries—and all the dull addenda that we are sure no one ever reads—and from what we gather last year's plays were really outstanding. Compare them with any of the other collections in the library and you will heartily agree. And incidentally, Advanced Composition students, if you want to find out what makes a play "go over," this is the book for you.

Hope Places Fourth In Debate Tourney

The women's debate squad returned from the state tournament at Kalamazoo last Saturday with six wins and eight losses. Seven teams represented Hope in the final contest, each debating two rounds. In the final ranking with nine other teams Hope placed fourth.

The squad this year consisted of four affirmative teams and three negative teams. Women debating affirmatively were: Eunice Sluyter and Alma Nyland, Theodora Meulendyke and Mildred Mulder, Nelva Zandbergen and Isla Meppelink, Marjorie Vyverberg and Gertrude Dame. Margaret Allen and Virginia Ellison, Lorraine Pomp and Margaret Lemke, Lois Heinrichs and Esther Bultman debated for the negative.

Prof. De Graaf, women's debate coach, Dr. Shackson, and Dr. Warner, accompanied the teams as judges.

AFTERMATH

Some time ago while Frater Frosh Passed through a week of shot and shell,
 One green and lowly Frosh was told Some brushes on the street to sell.
 And so, with pack upon his back,
 With 'hither look and klaxon bay He stood, and to the female sex
 Some Fuller brushes did display. He drew a crowd of pretty maids
 Who stood with eyes of wonder there,
 For 'neath his nose there did protrude
 One tiny, little wisp of hair.
 Now weeks have passed from then to now,
 And looking at this Frosh, so young,
 Each one with ease can surely see
 A Fuller brush right there has sprung.
 For this green Frosh with fuzzy lip
 I've now composed this little verse,
 And do with earnestness beseech
 That reading this he will not curse.

Tribute to Dr. Van Ess

 This article was written by Louis Tooni, now of Hope, a former student under Dr. John Van Ess in Iraq.

What is the work of Dr. John Van Ess in Basrah? Nobody will ever be able to answer that question. His work is tremendous, and it is highly looked upon by both the British and the Iraqians. He has simply given his life for his work and I think he is very proud of it.

Undoubtedly, you are anxious to learn something about his work; I have already stated that it is impossible to tell its magnitude. For, if one looks upon him as a principal of a school, one must admit that he is a very qualified principal—so as a preacher, also as a recognized government adviser.

His care for the poor is really astonishing. The unemployed come to him for help, and help is given to them if at all possible. A person who cannot afford to place his son in school comes to Dr. Van Ess and asks for help. His son then will be admitted to the school and be educated free of charge.

The lower class of Mohammedans are taken into school free of charge and supplied with warm clothes every year. To all the word of God is preached. Winter and summer is counted as one to Dr. Van Ess. The hot summer days do not stop him from carrying on his work when there is work to be done.

My purpose in writing this brief comment about Dr. Van Ess is to recommend his work to every student who is planning to take up the work of God.

ALUMNUS HEADS LEAGUE

At the national convention of the League of Evangelical Students held at Calvin last week, Adrian De Jonge, Hope alumnus, was elected president. Of the class of '36, De Young is now at Westminster Theological in Philadelphia. The League includes chapters over the entire nation, De Young succeeding a gentleman from Columbia University.

Let The Sparks Fly

Dear Editor:—

I suppose to start this off properly I should say, "Am I burned up." But to tell the truth, I'm still burning. What is the reason?—Well, two little words set off the spark—"Carnival Postponed."

Yes, the girls on Hope's campus have decided that because one boy strained a muscle, and another got a "Charley horse," 500 other Hope-ites should change their plans for last Thursday evening. But I hear a chorus of protest! Other fraternities weren't ready, and the carnival would have been a failure. That may be true, but judging from fraternity rivalries on the campus, it seems almost impossible that some boys would let an "All-College Event" pass by without being represented. The fraternity that was "indisposed" had been practicing for several weeks.

I'm not blaming the boys, for it seems to me, that the fault lies with the girls themselves. The carnival was planned for entertainment; the boys were asked to participate because it was thought that they also could be entertaining, at times. The boys fell down on their part, so the girls postponed and postponed. They needed the help of the boys so very much. And then girls speak of "Equality for women." No wonder the world of males has been smiling ever since women first began the campaign. No matter how you look at it the modern woman does not want to be on an equal level with any male. At least Hope's coeds don't. If they did, they wouldn't be so amusingly dependent on the boys.

Passing from the carnival to "greater things": For a long time the girls have been "crabbing" about the food at the dorm. That is, they "crab" among themselves. I'd like to see a bunch of fellows pay five dollars a week for lumpy potatoes and a desert of grapefruit. The girls casually mention the cold water, the rushing rules, the demerit system. Perhaps they don't realize that it takes action on the part of someone before a wrong is righted.

So, hail to the Hope coeds. Long may they remain on the pedestal upon which Hope men have placed them, protected from the strife of a busy world.

THE STUDENT PRINTS

By J. HOEKJE and D. LINCOLN

WELL, welcome again, gentle readers, to our colyum. We couldn't wait for the next regular issue, so we had this extra one printed just for us. Oh, that's all right! It wasn't anything, was it Chuck? HERE'S A TIP: If the W. A. L. Carnival does actually come off one of these nights be sure to catch the free show that the faculty is going to present!

From a test in the Psychology (Sike to you) department we reap the following boners: (The Grin-Reapers, that's us) 1. The sympathetic nervous system is one that has great regard for others.

2. The pituitary gland has the function of determining whether the child is to be a boy or a girl by the number of horrors.

3. Hyperthyroids are individuals who have a very high tone.

4. Hyperthyroids are individuals who live very fast.

A steamship company recently announced that a greater number of female passengers than ever before are taking trips abroad.

Women's place is in the room!

MY MY, we're quiptic today!

Apparently they're a little slower over there in Kalamazoo than we thought. (What if they can play basketball?) Although a certain pair of goalposts were sawed partly through last fall, it would appear that as yet, Kalamazooites have no inkling of the fact. Prof. McLean, what kind of people did you say they have there?

Earl Faber, who recently hung his frat pin, was enjoined upon by fraternity brothers to pass out cigars to celebrate the happy occasion. Protested Faber, stuttering in the excitement of the moment: "According to Emily Post, a girl is definitely not engaged until a ring has been placed upon her fender..."

Sit up 'till twelve o'clock some one of these nights, dorm girls, and listen for the whistling troubador who goes down tenth street every evening. He may not be quite equal to a serenade—but boy can he swing "Loch Lomon!"

According to immemorial Delphi customs, Delphi pledges took up-perclassmen to the basketball game last Friday. Here are a few reasons (given by the girls themselves) as to why they took the men they did:

I
 "George Zeigler is the one I asked
 Because his virtues can't be passed.
 And what if he thought it would be quite grand
 To indulge a bit in holding my hand?
 Or perhaps he would go even a step further
 And me in a fond embrace would smother?"
 Dear dear, what won't these freshmen think of next

 There is a little boy named Ed,
 I've asked him for a date
 His home is in Wisconsin
 He's in the class of '38.
 When we were told to get a date,
 I quickly made a dash
 And telephoned the Cosmos House,
 I like his cute mustache.
 We knew it would get 'em, Eddie ! ! ! !

SOCIAL LIFE LINES

Boys of Van Vleck Hall held a Washington Party on Saturday evening, February nineteen in the Hamilton Auditorium. The celebration was scheduled for seven o'clock and Adrian Newhouse served as commander-in-chief. The group camped at Valley Forge as Gerard Koster led them in singing, after which the inaugural address was given by Roger Van Oss. A skit featured Joe De Giglio and Douglas MacDonald, while Minuet in G brought the melodies of Gerard Koster, Henry Bovendam, Henry Voogd, and Clifford Keizer.

Henry Bovendam favored the audience with a monologue, followed by Washington harmony played by William Miller on his harmonica. The Congressional address was presented by William Terwilliger. Plantation songs were rendered by Thurston Rynbrandt and Henry Voogd in a trombone duet. Dr. Walter Van Saun concluded the program with his epitome, and the meeting adjourned to the playing of games in charge of Orville Hine.

Fraternal brothers held a Washington stag in the dining room of the Warm Friend Tavern last Wednesday evening at six thirty. Bob Powers acted as chairman of the evening, and president William Arendshorst presided. The program featured the telling of fish stories by members of the fraternity, and the prize for the biggest tale was awarded to Paul Boyink. The man with the biggest bow tie of the group was James Hinkamp, while the man with the smallest bow tie was Frank Flannigan.

The Collegiate Review

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

Thirty-two students at the University of Nebraska are working their way through school by scraping bones of prehistoric animals for the university museum.

Police questioned 13 University of Tulsa students recently whom they suspected of being "grave robbers," only to find that they were just filling a hell week assignment: copying data from tombstones on order of their fraternity "brothers."

Every third Saturday at 4 a. m., Arthur L. Loessin of Columbia, S. D., starts a 300-mile drive to attend the special classes for public school teachers held at the University of North Dakota. He travels the greatest distance of any in the class.

Students at the University of Kansas City are such sleepy-heads that Dean Glenn G. Bartle had to enlist the aid of the student council to keep them awake in the university "browsing room." Now, Dean Bartle has decided to install benches and straight-backed chairs instead of the present overstuffed furniture. The reason—he caught the student councilors asleep!

Dean Guy Stanton Ford, acting president of the University of Minnesota, has no time for hobbies. Besides his administrative duties he is editor of Harper's history series—a group of textbooks, editor-in-chief of Compton's 16 volumes of Pictured Encyclopedia, and has won a diploma for distinguished service to science from Sigma Xi. So what chance has stamp-collecting?

Dr. Samuel W. Grafflin of New York City, who will speak at the Y meeting next week.

Dr. Grafflin has for years been in great demand as a speaker before Bankers' Associations, Chambers of Commerce, Luncheon Clubs, School Assemblies, Church and Y. M. C. A. gatherings of all kinds. He is unique in his personality and presentation, and a pleasing forceful speaker.

Dr. Samuel K. Grafflin was born in Baltimore, Md. After the panic in 1879 he went West with his parents. He was obliged to go to work early to support his mother and younger brothers. At the age of fifteen he went to sea, and worked his way up to Brevet Captain. In this experience he got a real grasp of things spiritual and educational. Coming home, he studied hard, entered business, and later became a member of the firm.

Dykstra Wins Coles Oratory Contest

Dean Dykstra, competing against Earnest Tirrell and Wilbur Jacobs, won the honors in the Dr. J. Ackerman Coles Oratory contest held Tuesday, February 22. The prize is a bronze bust of Washington, which will be awarded Commencement night. The last prize was won by Harold De Windt.

Dean Dykstra's oration was entitled, "A Declaration of Interdependence;" Earnest Tirrell's, "Wishful Thinking;" and Wilbur Jacobs, "It Can Happen Here."

The judges at this contest were State Senator Ernest Brooks; Dr. John R. Mulder, professor at Western Theological Seminary; and Seymour Swets, coach of oratory at Calvin College.

The Dr. J. Ackerman Coles Oratory Prize was founded in 1906. The award is made every four years upon an oration of a patriotic nature.

The preliminaries for this contest were held February 1.

Olivet to Hold Conference For College Press

Friday morning will find representatives from about 50 colleges gathered at Olivet to hold a journalistic conference. The program will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and will end with a tea at 4 o'clock.

A tentative list of the students planning to attend includes Chuck Bertsch, editor; Rose Teninga, assistant editor; Genny Nafe, Molly Vaupell, Peg Bergen, Cleo Olin, Alma Weeldreyer, Jean Hoekje, Al Van Dye, Bob Wishmeier, Juke Arendshorst, and Peter Veltman.

The speakers are all men prominent in the journalistic field. Among them are Donald H. Haines of the University of Michigan journalism school; Stoddard White, school editor of the "Detroit News;" and Louis A. Strauss, until recently chairman of the Board of Control of Student Publication at the University of Michigan.

Olivet, Mich.—(ACP)—The Olivet College Echo, student newspaper of Olivet College, here, is planning an educational conference of small Michigan, Ohio, and Indiana college paper staffs Friday, March 4.

Purpose of the meeting will be to discuss problems and future possibilities of the college newspaper — what can be done with the small college paper, why it must be limited to local news when it is the only paper 70 per cent of the students see during the school year, why it cannot have definite social aims, etc.

The conference will consist of a morning and afternoon session including group conferences, round table discussions and speakers prominent in journalism. Definite programs are being distributed to all schools in the region, containing topics of the talks and names of speakers.

Fraters Defeat Cosmos; Win by One-Point Lead

Martin Timmer Receives Scoring Honors For Winners

Standings	W.	L.	Pct.
Fraternal	7	1	.875
Cosmopolitan	7	1	.875
Knickerbocker	5	3	.625
Emersonian	3	5	.375
Addison	2	6	.250
Independent	0	8	.000

Beating the Cosmopolitans Monday night by a score of 14 to 13, the Fraternals drew into a tie for first place in the fraternity basketball league.

In defeating the Cosmos, the Fraters overcame a three-year jinx. Each of the defeats during this span had been by one point. As in other Frater-Cosmos games, the scoring in Monday's game was limited.

The accurate shooting of Mart Timmer, Frater guard, proved to be too much for the Cosmos to overcome, as he rang up four baskets before the game terminated. Scoring honors for the losers were taken by Schaubel and Wierenga, who each scored four points.

Led by Timmer, the Fraters gained an early lead, as the score was 6-3 at the end of the first half; the lead was widened to 14-9 for the third period. The Cosmos held the Fraters scoreless during the last quarter, while they garnered four points. However, the Fraters "froze" the ball, protecting their one-point lead.

In the other games of the night, the Emersonians easily beat the Independents, 28-17. Faber caged eight points for the winners, and Hope and De Kraker got four each for the Independent five.

The third place Knickerbockers swamped the Addisons by a score of 48-24. The game was one of the highest scoring encounters of this season. The Fraters had made the highest team total in a game played a few weeks ago in which they tallied 57 points. In the Knickerbocker victory Van Domelen and Haack led the victors with 20 and 12 points respectively. Rusticus chalked up 19 for the losers.

Two more nights of play remain in the schedule. The Fraters must vanquish the Knickerbockers before they can be assured of a tie for championship. The Cosmopolitans have the Emersonians to contend with. In case of the probable tie, a play-off will undoubtedly be arranged by the director of play, Jack Schouten.

Athletic Era Here For Campus Coeds

Vim, vigor and vitality seem to be the watchwords for the girls on Hope's campus.

Tuesday night witnessed an exciting game of girls' basketball when Gladys Moerdyke's team, the Wolverines, defeated Margaret Allen's Tigers 19-14. This places the Wolverines in first place and the Tigers in second place. Hester Soeter's team forfeited a game to Ruth Van Popering's Lions, placing them in third position.

Wednesday the girls took another swimming trip. Lessons were given to those who desired and the rest occupied themselves by diving, racing and just swimming.

Thursday night the gym was open for ping-pong, badminton, shooting baskets, volley-ball, swinging on the rings and other exercises. It is hoped that the W.A.A. will be able to secure quoits and shuffleboard equipment.

Friday afternoon the girls bowled from three to five at 15c for two games.

This same schedule will be followed this week and it is hoped that every girl will participate.

Wishmeier New Sports Editor on Student Paper

Effective with this issue of the Anchor, several changes have been made in the student paper staff. Bob Wishmeier, former sports editor, is returning to that position in place of Dick Scofield, who left school at the end of last semester. Ken Meyers of the sport department has also returned to Dowagiac.

As the result of tests given to cub reporters, six new members have been added to the editorial staff. They are Bertha Vis, Ted Oegema, Fred Bertsch, Ruth Van Popering, Anita Vogt, and William Jesiek.

Plans Are Under Way For Durfee Memorial

Announcement was made at the last meeting of the Woman's Activities League Congress that plans are well under way for the Durfee Memorial Award. The award will be a blanket, similar to the ones given to the male athletes.

The girl winning the award must be outstanding in one athletic activity and must participate in other sports, have a C scholastic average, and have attended Hope for at least three years. A committee of three will choose the winning girl.

Will They Be M I A A Champions Second Year In Row?

SPORTING JOTS

By Bob Wishmeier

There have been three ties for the M.I.A.A. basketball title in the past four finished seasons. . . Two of them were decided by playoff games. . . In 1934, Hope tied Alma for the title, which incidentally, was Hope's first conference first-place in any sport. . . In 1935, playoffs were authorized by a vote of league members, and Hillsdale beat Albion at Jackson. . . In 1936, Albion beat Olivet in a playoff for title. . . Last year, Hope needed no playoff to take its first undisputed championship in the league. . . There is but an outside chance that there will not be another playoff this year. . . Olivet would have to beat Kalamazoo tomorrow. . . In case of a Hornet victory, officials of the league will meet with Hope and Kalamazoo representatives at the Pantlind hotel in Grand Rapids, Wednesday at 11 a. m., to decide upon a court and date for the final fracas. . .

If there is a playoff, it probably will be held in the Burton Heights gymnasium in Grand Rapids. . . The probable date will be March 7 or 8. . . The Burton gym holds twice as many fans as the Holland armory, and predictions are that we'll have to get there early for a seat. . . De Gaay Ernst, judge advocate of the M.I.A.A., and Dr. H. M. Davidson of Hillsdale, treasurer of the circuit, have their fingers crossed. . . Participating teams in a playoff get only expenses, while the profits go to the association. . . The other two playoffs, at Jackson and at Battle Creek, have been profitable. . .

Stan Lane, Kalamazoo football field general, relayed the action of Friday's game to students in the Kalamazoo gym via telephone. . . During the half, members of the Hornet faculty spoke to the listeners. . . President Cole promised victory; Dr. F. B. Bachelor was confident, and a Kalamazoo news commentator said, "I suppose you don't care if you don't win; you have another chance, anyway." . .

Dr. B. M. Raymond, Hope college golf coach, has fifteen matches already scheduled for the spring season. . . For the first time, Alma puts a foursome in the field before the annual M.I.A.A. tournament. . . Speaking of spring sports, the association indoor meet at Hillsdale is scheduled for March 16. . . Another point for spring airing is: The second annual inter-fraternity track meet here will probably be pulled off late in April or in May. . .

Frosh Lose Prelim To Kazoo Yearlings; Try Again Tomorrow

In the prelim to the varsity victory of Friday night, the frosh tried with all the fight they could muster to make it two victories for the night. The efforts of the frosh were repulsed by the margin of one point, as the Kalamazoo frosh emerged with the coveted lead. The final score was 18-17 in favor of the boys from Kazoo.

The scoring was light in the first two periods, but the locals kept pace with the Celery City five, trailing 4-3 at the end of the first period, and 8-7 at the end of the half. The frosh found one point to be their white elephant all night as the lead changed hand many times during the game.

The Hope yearlings came back with additional fight at the start of the second half and before long found themselves to hold leads of 11-9, 13-11, 15-13 and held it last at 17-15. As time waned the locals were tied at 17-17, and then a Kazoo foul shot gave them a cherished advantage which they held for the next two minutes. Hope missed many shots during the last two minutes and their passing could have been better.

The team as a whole stood out for its floor play. Scoring was evenly divided on the Kalamazoo side.

Tomorrow night the representatives of '41 trek to Kalamazoo to try again. The game is to be played as a prelim to the Kazoo-Olivet game. The frosh will be fighting with added five then, as they know the game of Friday night could have gone their way just as well as not.

Hope Wins Loop Lead With Kazoo Victory, 48-41

Meet Wednesday To Plan Probable Play-off In Grand Rapids

MIAA STANDINGS

Hope	10	2	.823
Kalamazoo	9	2	.817
Albion	8	2	.727
Alma	6	4	.600
Hillsdale	4	8	.333
Olivet	1	10	.090
Adrian	1	10	.090

The Hope basketballs, playing before a jammed record-breaking armory crowd of 1,500 displayed some of the best basketball of the year last Friday night to drop a 48-41 defeat into the laps of a greatly over-awed Kalamazoo quintet; Hope thus climbed to a percentage lead over the defeated squad for first place in the M.I.A.A.

Those who were fortunate enough to secure tickets for the contest were rewarded two-fold for their efforts for none in the tightly-packed gym could give any but commendable comment for the Dutch or Hornet performance. Hope grabbed an early lead and held to it desperately, though upon two occasions it was within one point of retirement.

Kalamazoo, playing about the same type of ball they used in Hope's upset defeat at Kalamazoo, can have no complaint. Their game was good, but for that evening, at least, their competition was better. Neither team was absolutely faultless in its shooting. Both lost several shots they should have counted and both showed occasional spurts of power and scoring ability which it seemed were impossible to stop. Hope led at half time, 26-19.

Spalsbury, high-scoring Kazoo forward, tucked in but eleven points under the watchful eye of Ade Slikkers and was tied up in a handful of knots most of the time when he tried to get one off. Jones, at center for the defeated team, was high-point man for the evening, with six field goals and three free throws. Brannock, playing opposite the high-point man, uncorked a brilliant performance with his own play to lead the Hope scores with 13 points.

"All in all," last Friday's game will serve best, no doubt, as a build up for the probable Hope-Kazoo playoff. On a neutral floor those teams will be nip and tuck from whistle to whistle.

Coach Bud Hinga and Dr. B. M. Raymond of Hope, Coach Chester Barnard and Dr. Allan B. Stowe of Kalamazoo, De Gaay Ernst, judge advocate of the M.I.A.A., and Dr. H. M. Davidson of Hillsdale, treasurer of the association, will meet as a committee to plan a play-off Wednesday at 11 a. m. in the Pantlind hotel at Grand Rapids. This meeting, as does the possibility of a final game, hinges on Kalamazoo's defeat of Olivet tomorrow night.

The box score follows:

HOPE—48
Thomas, forward	3	1	7
Boyink, forward	4	0	8
Brannock, center	6	1	13
Marcus, guard	3	0	6
Slikkers, guard	1	1	3

PAGEANT AMUSES CAPITAL

(ACP)—The University of Maryland, a few miles from the Capital, went to town Friday night with an "All-University" pageant that included exhibitions by every athletic division of the institution. The program included basketball, boxing, archery, tap dancing, fencing, tumbling, ROTC drill, and interpretive dancing. Five thousand spectators, many of them from Washington, applauded the varied program, which was opened by a parade of 25 of the prettiest girls in the school, all arrayed in white satin costumes.
